

Vince Molinaro, Ph.D., is a New York Times best-selling author, strategic leadership adviser, speaker, and global expert on leadership accountability.

As founder and CEO of Leadership Contract Inc (LCI), Vince has worked with organizations from start-ups to Fortune 500, in 25 countries and over 80 cities. He and his team equip leaders to navigate critical strategic leaps in their companies by scaling accountability and community. He is the author of five books. His most recent books include Accountable Leaders and the revised version of The Leadership Contract. His books are the foundation of many leadership programs in companies around the world. His newest book, Community of Leaders, will be released in September 2024.

As a speaker, Vince brings a unique combination of provocative storytelling, research-based principles, grounded practicality, and the courage to tell it like it is. He was named by All American Speakers Bureau as one of the Top Business Speakers in 2023.

Vince and his teams have designed and delivered many award-winning leadership development programs. The Leadership Contract program is regarded as a top international training program by HR.com and has won several thought leadership awards.

Many leading business publications and podcasts regularly feature Vince's research and ideas on leadership accountability. He shares his insights in his Gut Check for Leaders blog and on his Lead the Future video podcast. The Leadership Accountability Academy™ (on the Apple and Google App Stores) is LCI's digital platform where leaders can take courses and learn how to be more accountable.

As a leader, Vince strives to practice what he preaches by setting the tone of accountability every day.
